Most Respected Sir,

We the inhabitants of Arasapura Village of Maddagiri Taluk of the Tumkur Dist beg leave to bring the following few lines into your honours Kind Consideration and reply at your earliest Convenience

The Deputy Inspector of Schools of the Tumkur Dist told personly H Channaiah a Native of Halikunta to establish a Lambani School at Arasapura about 10 months ago Accordingly he is doing the duty with his own costs from the last 10 months on applying to the Deputy Inspector many a times he did not reply any reply till now about the establishment of the said School on applying to the Inspector General of Education he received an indorsement to the effect that our applications are sent to the deputy Inspector of this district to report about the establishment of the said School After receiving this we asked the Deputy Inspector about the matter and got a reply that he has reported often for the necessity of the establishment of the School The master is working without pay pending on the future permanent establishment of the School

Therefore we request your honour to Consider the Case and order to the Inspector General of Education for the establishment of the Sand School and Thus render us a great help For this act of Charity and Kindness we pray your honours long life and everlasting prosperity

We remain Sirs
your obedient
Servents
